

Music--"Here ye not the Wood-birds song"--Jennie Arnold. "The Grumbler"-- Arthur Curtis. Tableau--"Quaker singing meeting." "Then and now," Clara Arnold.
"Above the skies"--Clara Griswold and Nancy Snedeker. Recitation--"The good old times"--Augustus Curtis. Music.
Dialogue--"If you'd be happy, you must be good"--Susie A. Curtis, Jos. Briggs, Eugene Sanders, Nellie and Carrie Kingsbury, was splendid. Gymnastics--Several young ladies came forth dressed in white and performed nicely. "Conscience the Arbiter"--Cataline, George Curtis; Aureilia, Augustus Curtis; spoken well.
"I'll be a man"--Freddy Griswold. Tableau-- "Brides Dream." Select reading--"Miss Muslin borrows an umbrella"--L. Curtis.
"Johnny's opinion of grandmothers"-- Lewis Arnold. "Music speaks as of old"-- N. Gaylord. Dialogue--"The Country Aunt's visit;" Elenor--Jennie Arnold; Hattie, Phoebe McMullen; Miriam, Esther Snedeker, Aunt Peabody, Katie Perham, was nicely delivered. Tableau--"Guardian Angel," "Twenty Froggies,"--George Perham.
Music. Declamation--Carie Gaylord.
Dialogue--"The Glass Slipper"--Cinderilla, L. Curtis; Rose.[sic] A. Curtis; Ellen, A. Gaylord; Prince, Henry Loomis; Warden, Harry Belknap. Good Music. "Tin Wedding,"--L. C., with chorus. Declamation--Geo. Snedeker. Song--"The Old Lady"--Hattie Curtis; "Old Man" Frank Curtis. Met with great applause.

Organist, H. Curtis; Violinist, Henry Loomis.

The farces, dialogues and music, were all excellent in their way, and the teacher well repaid for her labor. It is understood that the proceeds of the exhibition are to be appropriated towards the purchase of a dictionary for the school.

A. Listener.